COMPANY SNAPSHOT

Papadimitriou is a family business founded in 1939 in Kalamata to export currants from the Peloponnese region of Greece. In the late 1990s, Papadimitriou transformed to become a producer of all-natural balsamic vinegars and mustards in unique Mediterranean flavors, all derived from currants. Today it sells these value-added products in major supermarkets in Greece, where it is the balsamic vinegar market leader, as well as in 28 export markets.
