COMPANY SNAPSHOT

HotelBrain, a leading hotel management firm, provides bespoke management and pre-opening consulting services to luxury boutique hotels, allowing owners to retain full control over their assets while improving guest experience and increasing revenue by an average of 20%. To improve the status quo within the hospitality industry, HotelBrain has established an education center to train management staff for placement within top hotels in the hospitality industry. HotelBrain isn't just providing consulting services; the company is building an ecosystem, from managing hotels and consulting on new developments, to creating a community of hospitality insiders, and training the next generation of hotel management talent.
