COMPANY SNAPSHOT

Every month, thousands of TV executives across the Americas read TodoTVMedia (TTVM) for industry insight and market analysis. TTVM has grown from a garage flyer to an industry leading publication. Founded in 2004 by Uruguayan serial entrepreneurial Sebastián Lateulade and distributed for free in more than 30 countries, TTVM generates revenue by selling ad space to industry leaders like Disney, Warner Bros., HBO, Universal and Televisa. Their clients look to TTVM's magazine and online portal when promoting recently launched feature programming or making key content decisions.
