COMPANY SNAPSHOT

Sergio and Nicolas are the brains behind Gemelo, an Internet Application Service Provider (ASP) and developer. The company provides its customers with secure, confidential access to their personal and corporate information. It allows them to consolidate all their information in one point of access, by utilizing sophisticated data storage and management techniques, including corporate level security features. Since selection, Gemelo has expanded across Latin America.

Sergio, who remains an advisor to Gemelo, has gone on to start two tech firms, Intelliholding and ProactiveOffice .

ENDEAVOR AND PROACTIVEOFFICE

With Endeavor's strong support, Gemelo expanded across Latin America. Through a VC roadshow, Endeavor helped the Entrepreneurs close a deal with a partner. In addition to a local Endeavor Forum, they have benefited from the global eMBA program (which provided an international marketing strategy), Ernst & Young Fellows program, Immersion Tours, and Entrepreneur Summit. Endeavor has been involved in helping the Entrepreneurs launch new ventures.
